

MEZZANINE DECKING

LEED® Credits

Thank you for choosing TRED-eXtra® for your industrial platform. TRED-eXtra may qualify for LEED® credits. Affiliated Resources, Inc. can help you satisfy specific LEED credits based on product selection and location.

Please see below for details on the potential credits available:

LEED Category	Intent	TRED-eXtra Specification
MR 4. Materials & Resources: Recycled Content	Increases the use of building products that contain recycled material	Manufactured with 99.17% Pre-Consumer* (Post-Industrial Recycle in Raw Material & 0.83% Post-Consumer* Recycled/Recovered in Raw Material
MR 5. Materials & Resources: Regional Materials	Increase the use of building products that are extracted and manufactured within the project region	All raw materials are sourced regionally in western Oregon. 59.74% of wood extracted within 50 miles; 92.34% within 150 miles; 100% within 250 miles Contact Affiliated Resources, Inc. for site location details.
IEQ 4.4 Indoor Environmental Quality: Low Emitting Materials	Improve indoor air quality	Available; must be specified prior to manufacture Contact Affiliated Resources, Inc. for specification details.

*Recycled content meets definitions prescribed in International Organization of Standards document, ISO 14021—Environmental labels and declarations—Self-declared environmental claims (Type II environmental labeling) as well as definitions prescribed in the Composite Panel Association’s Eco-certified Composite (ECC) Sustainability Standard CPA 4-1

Note that numbers provided are calculated mill averages (percent by weight) for all products made in Oregon facility.